

NOTICE TO EMPLOYEES
POSTED BY ORDER OF THE
EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY COMMISSION
An Agency of the United States Government

This Notice is posted pursuant to an order by the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission dated May 09, 2022 which found that violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (Title VII), as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e et seq. has occurred at the Department of Agriculture's Forest Service facility in Albuquerque, New Mexico (hereinafter this facility).

Federal law requires that there be no discrimination against any employee or applicant for employment because of the person's RACE, COLOR, RELIGION, SEX, NATIONAL ORIGIN, AGE, or DISABILITY with respect to hiring, firing, promotion, compensation, or other terms, conditions or privileges of employment.

This facility was found to have subjected an employee to retaliatory harassment due to protected EEO activity. The facility was ordered to consider payment of compensatory damages and provide training to and consider discipline against the responsible management officials. This facility will ensure that officials responsible for personnel decisions and terms and conditions of employment will abide by the requirements of all federal equal employment opportunity laws and will not retaliate against employees who file EEO complaints.

This facility will comply with federal law and will not in any manner restrain interfere coerce, or retaliate against any individual who exercises his or her right to practices made unlawful by, or who participates in proceedings pursuant to, federal equal employment opportunity law.
